

A word from Louise Buzit

Provincial Coordinator to prevent elder mistreatment among English-speaking seniors and members of cultural communities.

As part of the Provincial Action Plan to Combat Elder mistreatment among English-speaking seniors and members of cultural communities, new comic strips on mistreatment are now available on the website of the Mistreatment Helpline.

Click here to view the comics:

On the Mistreatment Helpline website, you will find translations in various languages. Please note that the Armenian and Arabic translations of the first five comics - namely, the stories of Saïd, Minh, and Georgia on good treatment, and the stories of Fabio and Manuel on mistreatment are now available and can be shared with your clients from these communities.

Several comic strips about good treatment are also available and have been translated into multiple languages. Click here to view them:
